

2021 Kurt Bucholz Conservation Award - Nomination Form

DEADLINE FOR NOMINATIONS: May 1, 2021

Please submit completed nomination form and letter* to:

cidney@wsglt.org or PO Box 268, Cheyenne, WY 82003

Please fill out the form below with the information of the person or family you are nominating for this year's Kurt Bucholz Conservation Award. Keep in mind the criteria listed below while completing the application.

The Kurt Bucholz Conservation Award is meant to recognize a person or family who is:

- An advocate for conserving Wyoming's farms and ranches.
- A land steward or agricultural advocate who has been a participant in natural resource discussions on a state, regional, or national level.
- A defender of water conservation and protecting Wyoming's traditional water rights.
- Has a personal commitment to habitat conservation and is a proponent of hunting and wildlife protection.
- Has implemented land or resource conservation practices on their property with the WSGLT or a similar organization.

The award winner will receive tickets and be recognized at the WSGLT's 21st Anniversary Roundup Barbeque on August 28, 2021 at the Padlock Ranch in Ranchester, WY. The award winner will also receive a beautiful custom-made bronze statue from Jerry and Ann Palen.

If you have any questions, please contact Cidney Handy at the WSGLT office at 307-772-8751 or
