Wyoming Stock Growers Land Trust Announces New Engagement Coordinator

Cheyenne, WY

April 19, 2021 - The Wyoming Stock Growers Land Trust (WSGLT) announced today that Sarah Kauer was hired as the new Engagement Coordinator on April 15th. As the Engagement Coordinator, Sarah will oversee marketing and communication efforts and assist in fundraising for the Land Trust.

Originally from Durango, CO Sarah moved to Wyoming in 2011 to attend the University of Wyoming, graduating with a degree in Agricultural Business. Prior to joining the Wyoming Stock Growers Land Trust Sarah worked in the College of Agriculture and Natural Resources at the University of Wyoming. During her time at UW Sarah had the opportunity to travel across the State meeting many wonderful people, becoming familiar with the state's agricultural industry and landscapes.

About the Wyoming Stock Growers Land Trust

*The WSGLT is dedicated to conservation through ranching. Based in Cheyenne, the non-profit organization serves the entire state and is Wyoming's only agricultural land trust. Through partnerships with ranch families, the WSGLT holds and stewards conservation easements on more than 284,000 acres of land on ranches and farms throughout Wyoming. Founded in 2000 by the 140-year-old Wyoming Stock Growers Association, it is one of the largest among the 1,659 regional land trusts in the United States.
