Diana Berger elected to Wyoming Stock Growers Land Trust Board of Directors

January 27, 2022 - The Wyoming Stock Growers Land Trust announced today that Diana Berger has been elected to the organization's Board of Directors.

A resident of Saratoga, Diana joins the Board of Directors with an extensive list of leadership roles at both the county and state level. Diana has served as the past Chairman of the Carbon County School District #2 Board of Trustees and is currently a member of the Carbon County Planning and Zoning Board. At the state level, Diana has served on the Platte Valley Mule Deer Migration Corridor working group and is the past Chairman of the Wyoming State Fair Board of Directors. Currently, Diana is finishing out her term with the State Fair Board of Directors.

Additionally, Diana is a longtime member of the Wyoming Stock Growers Association, having served many years on the Environmental Stewardship Selection Committee and as Chair of the association's Ag Promotion, Education and Enhancement Committee.

Diana is a producer and ranches alongside her husband, Jack, on their family's ranch outside of Saratoga.

"Diana has long demonstrated leadership and service in the agricultural community and in local organizations. Her background and experiences will certainly strengthen our work," said Jessica Crowder, Executive Director. "The Wyoming Stock Growers Land Trust is thrilled to welcome her to the organization."

Members of the Board of Directors are responsible for establishing the organization's mission, determining strategic direction, setting policies to carry out the mission, and oversight of the organization's finances.

About the Wyoming Stock Growers Land Trust:

The Wyoming Stock Growers Land Trust is dedicated to conservation through ranching. Based in Cheyenne, the non-profit organization serves the entire state and is Wyoming's only agricultural land trust. Through partnerships with families, the Wyoming Stock Growers Land Trust holds and stewards agricultural conservation easements on more than 287,000 acres of land throughout Wyoming. Founded in 2000 by the Wyoming Stock Growers Association, it is one of the largest regional land trusts in the United States.
