

2023 Kurt Bucholz Conservation Award - Nomination Form

DEADLINE FOR NOMINATIONS: May 10, 2023

Please submit completed nomination form and letter to:

sarah@wsglt.org or PO Box 268, Cheyenne, WY 82003

The Kurt Bucholz Conservation Award is given in memory of the late Dr. Kurt Bucholz, DVM, rancher from Carbon County, and early supporter of the Wyoming Stock Growers Land Trust (WSGLT). This award recognizes the value of conservation and commitment to protecting Wyoming's working lands.

Please fill out the form below with the information of the person or family you are nominating for the Kurt Bucholz Conservation Award. We want to celebrate the achievements and spirit of the award. Use of specific examples, letters of support, and multimedia are highly encouraged.

The Kurt Bucholz Conservation Award recognizes a person or family who is:

- An advocate for conserving Wyoming's farms and ranches.
- A land steward or agricultural advocate who has been a participant in natural resource discussions on a state, regional, or national level.
- A defender of water conservation and protecting Wyoming's traditional water rights.
- Has a personal commitment to habitat conservation and is a proponent of hunting and wildlife protection.
- Has implemented land or resource conservation practices on their property with the WSGLT or a similar organization.

The award winner will receive tickets and be recognized at the land trust's Annual Roundup Barbeque and Fundraiser on August 26, 2023 in Boulder, WY. The award winner will also receive a beautiful custom-made bronze statue designed by the late Jerry Palen and his wife Ann.

If you have any questions, please contact Sarah Kauer at the WSGLT office at 307-772-8751 or
